Programs are delivered by corporate and community volunteers and provide relevant, hands-on experiences that give students from kindergarten through high school knowledge and skills in financial literacy, work readiness and entrepreneurship. Volunteers will receive a resource kit complete with an easy-to-follow teaching guide and learning materials necessary for program implementation.

Volunteers will present five, 45-minute activities, typically once a week, in a classroom during a convenient time for them within the school day.

Volunteers must be fingerprinted by the New Milford Board of Education.
